

Become a TOP Replication Partner

Wyman's Teen Outreach Program® (TOP®) empowers teens with the tools and opportunities needed to avoid risky behaviors, and become leaders with a powerful vision for their future.

TOP empowers teens from sixth through twelfth grade with the tools and opportunities needed to build a foundation of healthy behaviors, life skills, and a sense of purpose.

Caring and highly trained adult facilitators guide students through a unique combination of engaging curriculum and experiential community service learning opportunities that help teens build their strengths and hone social emotional skills proven to bolster success later in life.

The program is offered in a variety of settings by more than 50 partners and 300 providers nationwide. TOP has been implemented successfully with diverse communities, and in both urban and rural environments. The program is designed to meet adolescent developmental needs and can be implemented in a variety of settings, including: in-school, after-school, through community organizations or in systems and institutional settings.

Become a TOP Replication Partner

When organizations partner with Wyman to replicate TOP in their own communities, they experience intensive program training and start-up support, periodic program reviews and audits, access to a proprietary data collection and monitoring system, and on-going technical assistance by Wyman staff to ensure each partner is experiencing a high-quality implementation of the program.

In partnering with Wyman, organizations become a member of Wyman’s National Network—a community of practice through which they may interact with peers who are also committed to delivering excellence.

Below is an overview of the costs associated with partnering with Wyman to deliver the Teen Outreach Program. We recognize that all nonprofit and community organizations are different in size and scope, please contact Tori Gale for more assistance in exploring if this evidence-based program is right for your teens and your community.
